

Local Population Increased 54 P.C. In Past Decade

Town Ranks Third In Proportion of Population Increase During Ten Year Period—Bedford Rank Highest In State With Greatest Increase—Belmont Is Second—Metropolitan Boston Population Increases

Arlington's population has increased considerably during the past ten years according to an analysis of the 1935 state census made by the Bureau of Commercial and Industrial Affairs of the Boston Chamber of Commerce. The exact increase is 54.5 per cent.

Metropolitan Boston gained nearly 78,000 in population between 1925 and 1935 and more than 195,000 in the 10-year period 1925-1935.

The area selected is that defined by the United States Census Bureau comprising 80 cities and towns within 20 miles of the center of Boston. The total population for the area according to the recently compiled state census figures for the various cities and towns was 2,385,463, which compares with 2,307,897 for 1930 and 2,190,410 for 1925.

Over the 10-year period 1925-1935 the population increase in Metropolitan Boston was 8.9 per cent. During the same time 66 of the 80 communities showed increases ranging up to over 110 per cent, while 14 cities and towns registered decreases of less than 1 percent to 9.7 percent. Four towns, Arlington, Belmont, Burlington and Bedford, increased 50 percent or more, the last named, Bedford, being the only town in the state which more than doubled in size during the 10-year period.

Seventeen cities and towns showed substantial gains of between 25 and 50 percent, among which were Quincy with 28 percent gain, Watertown, 41 percent; Medford, 29 percent; Wellesley, 48 percent, and Milton, 41 percent. The Chamber's analysis reveals that the larger increases were shown in the municipalities located within 10 to 15 miles of Boston, and that towns which lost population or gained but little during the decade are in general in the outermost part of the area. An exception to this trend is found, however, in the case of the industrial cities of Cambridge, Lynn and Chelsea.

High School Play Tonight

Robbins Memorial town hall will be the scene of one of the finest plays ever presented by the Arlington High School Dramatic club this evening when the organization will present, "Smiling Through," by Allan Langdon Martin. The production, the most ambitious ever attempted by the club, is under the direction of Claire H. Johnson and Helen I. Matthews. Miss Lorraine Miller will appear in the lead role.

TOWN MEETING ADJOURNED WITH QUORUM LACKING

The special town meeting scheduled for last Wednesday evening was postponed until Friday evening, February 7, at 8 o'clock because the necessary quorum of 134 town meeting members was lacking.

After waiting for over one hour for sufficient town meeting members to show up, the roll was called by Town Clerk E. Caroline Pierce Fairchild and the meeting was adjourned. Only 124 town meeting members answered the roll call. Lack of interest in the nine articles in the warrant was the evident cause of the poor turnout. In an attempt to round up a quorum, town officials called police headquarters and scout car crews were immediately sent out to theatres, and other meeting places, as well as a wake in search of town meeting members. In the meantime, those faithful town meeting members and the handful of spectators who went to the town hall waited patiently. When the clock struck nine and the roll call had been completed, it was voted to adjourn until a week from tonight. Town Moderator Paul M. White was in the chair.

The NEWS learned yesterday that the meeting which failed to accomplish anything will cost the town in the neighborhood of $50. In addition to the inconvenience to clerks, town officials and town meeting members.

Sickness, in many cases, was given as the reason for town meeting members not showing up but that it should reach epidemic proportions was far from being anticipated.

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE SELECTS CANDIDATES

The long-awaited Citizens' Committee slate of candidates for office in the March election was revealed last Friday evening following a meeting of the general committee at the Heights headquarters.

The candidates nominated and endorsed are:

Albert W. Wunderly, Moderator; Hollis M. Gott, Selectman; James R. Smith, Board of Public Works.

Earl A. Ryder, Town Clerk; Charles A. Hardy, Treasurer; Edward A. Bailey, Tax Collector; Clarence Moore, Assessor; Harold A. Cahalin, School Com.; James W. Kidder, School Com.; Arthur W. Lacey, School Com.; Herbert M. Dutcher, Planning Board; S. T. Rasmussen, Planning Board; Dr. Charles Atwood, Board of Health; J. Edward Kimball, Cemetery Commissioner.

Daniel M. Hooley is expected to accept the nomination for Park Commissioner at the next meeting of the committee Monday evening at 1195 Massachusetts avenue. The campaign to elect the entire Citizen's slate will be launched on Monday evening.

Definite selection of the Committee's slate now leaves the way open to concentrate on the campaign itself. Up to last Friday evening, considerable speculation was in order over the candidates likely to get the "committee of a thousand's" endorsement. It was rumored that the Committee might endorse George H. Lowe, Jr., for re-election to the board of selectmen, and that more than one candidate sought the endorsement received by Earl A. Ryder for town clerk. The selections made last Friday evening, however, settled definitely the matter of endorsements for this year.

Now the campaign is on, and it is likely that with a record number of candidates out to oppose the Citizens Committee slate this year, the battle for votes will be hard fought.

"HUNTER" ARRESTED

Acting on a complaint made by a citizen, the police yesterday afternoon, arrested a man alleged to have been shooting pheasants.

This will afford an opportunity for those who were unable to attend the President's Birthday Ball last evening to contribute their share to this most worthwhile cause. The NEWS urges all to do their bit NOW!

Large Crowd At Colorful Birthday Ball In Town Hall

Event in Town Hall One of Six Thousand Parties in Honor of President Roosevelt — Funds to be Used for Infantile Paralysis Fight — Many Prominent Residents in Grand March — Concert and Entertainment Enjoyed by Large Number

Simultaneously with six thousand other cities and towns all over the country, Arlington last night celebrated President Roosevelt's birthday with a ball, the proceeds of which will be used to help fight infantile paralysis.

Seldom has the Robbins town hall been the scene of as colorful an event as took place last evening. Shortly after the doors were opened, crowds arrived at the hall to enjoy the concert and dancing arranged by the large committee headed by P. Joseph McManus. The gallery was filled with spectators as the concert by Duke Charles and his orchestra was soon under way.

An elaborate program of variety acts was then presented by Joseph Barry, chairman of the entertainment committee. Included on the program were Vincent Badale, banjoist, accompanied by Kenneth Berwell; George MacFarlane, radio tenor; Miss Huston, cornetist accompanied by Miss Kiley; Little Barbara Doe who appeared in the "Dance of the French Maid", accompanied by Miss Marion Edward; Eddie Shine, New England's Fred Astaire; Joe Barry and Larry Jenkins in "Harmony As You Like It"; and Donald Hooten of the Club Mayfair.

Welcomes Guests

Following the entertainment program, General Chairman McManus welcomed those present and thanked all who contributed to make the affair a success. He particularly thanked those organizations such as the American Legion, The Veterans of Foreign

"You were right!" says one friend to another. "Their food certainly is delicious... and their cocktails excellent. Their Wines and Liquors are the best from 41 Nations." Let's have Dinner there tomorrow. RIGHT! That New Year's Eve Party was a real treat. The Setting and Dancing in the SPANISH ROOM was Delightful. We must arrange there for our next BANQUET.

LAST MEETING OF THE National Union for Social Justice WILL BE HELD Friday, February 7 AT 8 P. M. IN THE Jr. High School West Arlington, Mass.

All organizers are requested to be present for the purpose of electing permanent officers.

CHANDLER'S CAMPHOLINE SINCE 1878

The annual drive for funds to carry on Scouting in the communities included in Sacrament Council will start simultaneously in Arlington, Bedford, Belmont, Concord, Lexington, Lincoln, and Watertown, February 10th and end February 17th.

The drive is under the general direction of Russell P. Wise of Arlington, chairman of the Council Committee on Public Relations. Robert P. Trask of Lexington is chairman of the General Solicitation Committee, Wm. H. Eckert of Watertown, chairman of the Special Gift Committee, and Ernest W. Davis of Arlington, Chairman of the Citizens Committee.

Mr. Trask's aides are the Section Chairmen as follows: Herman Gammons, Arlington; Stuart C. Rand, Belmont; John J. Garrity, Bedford-Lexington; Thomas L. Sanborn, Concord-Lincoln; Wm. S. Holdsworth, Watertown.

Division Leaders are: Ellsworth E. Munro, Wm. B. Cummings, John O. Matthews, Roland F. Norton, Homer Collins, d Wyman, W. Smart of Arlington; Robert J. Young, Everett C. Preston, Grosvenor G. Betts, Edward F. P. Burns, and Rodney D. Mosher, Belmont; Clyde E. Steeves, Robert H. Sands, Lexington-Bedford; Norman W. Frisdd, Lincoln; Erwin L. Bumford, and Eliot R. Howard, Concord; and Ernest Walden, Fred Marriner, C. Arthur Wheeler, Percy C. Campbell and Fred L. Sawyer, Watertown.

Each Division Leader will have four captains of teams under him, and each team will be composed of five men. Among the captains are H. B. Spong, W. H. Farnsworth, Arthur Robinson, D. J. Hurley, Winslow C. Sisson, Ernest L. Cooper, Rodman Dickie, Paul Burke, Kenneth M. Norton, Arlington; Ernest Simpson, Hubert Canning, Belmont; W. Macintosh, John Loring, Harris Moore, Wm. Rugg, Frederick Bell and W. Well-don of Watertown.

Besides the committees mentioned above there are several others: Committee on Auditing, Chairman Walter H. Taft, Jr.; Committee on News, George B. C. Rugg, and on Demonstrations and Speakers, Stanley G. Skalle.

Must Raise $16,616

This year the Council is out to raise $16,616. This sum is larger than last year's objective in order to provide for too-long delayed improvements at Camp Sacrament, the summer camp at Antrim, N. H. and for the extension of Senior Scout and Cub programs.

At present there are 1225 Scouts and Cubs in the district and 450 volunteer Scouters. The operating cost per Scout for 1936 is estimated at $6.30 per year as against $14.00 ten years ago, $11.50 five years ago, and $6.25 last year.

Plan New Troops

Following facts brought out in a boy survey held recently which showed that only one-half of the boys who wanted to be Scouts could be, the Council at its annual meeting held this month determined to organize 18 new Troops as the major objective of the coming year. It is estimated that there will be a Scout and Cub membership of over 1500 by the close of 1936.

During the week before the drive, starting Feb. 7th, there will be demonstrations and exhibits of Scouting activities in practically every business center of the district. More of these "shows" will be in store windows, with here and there outdoor activities as in Arlington Center, where Scouts will put on a winter camping demonstration on the "Triangle" lot east of the Old Town Hall.

Stamp Exhibit At Hobby Show Proves Interesting

One flat glass case was devoted to the exhibit of the Arlington Stamp Club at the recent Hobby Show in Robbins town hall. In this case the most conspicuous exhibition was that of Christmas seals prepared by Charles W. Skinner of the High School. All in all it constituted a beautiful collection. Starting with the United States of 1909 and subsequent issues there was representation from Denmark, France, Greece, Belgium, Jamaica, Sweden, South Africa and even Trenchan. Three specimens of the Surinam Green Cross were included. Most beautiful was the wonderful set in memory of Queen Astrid that has just appeared. It would be hard to find anywhere a group of stamps that combines beauty and interest in such a large measure.

A varied collection on Czechoslovakia was also shown. Here were books, postcards, autograph photographs, a little brochure or two, and commemorative stamps. The whole centered upon that most important event in European history, the resignation of President Thomas G. Masaryk and the succession of Dr. Edvard Benes. Masaryk's own book, "The Making of a State," and the biography of Benes by Crabites together with the postcard pictures of Dr. Benes, stamped and dated the day of his election, form one part of the collection.

Extracts from the travel collection of postage stamps of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur I. Andrews, including the little brochure, "Through Czechoslovakia By Post," formed another.

The various issues of Czechoslovak stamps, commemorating the various anniversaries of President Masaryk were not without interest, and there was included also various special cancellations for these anniversaries.

V. F. W. NOTES

"Through the columns of your newspaper, I should like to address a personal message to every veteran in Arlington on behalf of Arlington Post 4775, V. F. W. of U. S."

"For the last ten years the Veterans of Foreign Wars has been leading the fight for immediate cash payment of adjusted service certificates. Congress has finally enacted a law for immediate payment of the so called Bonus."

"To further cooperate and help all veterans, application blanks can be obtained at the Post Hall any evening from 8 until 9, except Saturday and Sunday. One of the officers of the Post will assist you in the proper manner of filing your application at once. No obligation. Our quarters are at 352 Mass. ave. Maurice J. Geary, Commander."

An open meeting will be held the latter part of February in conjunction with the membership drive. Announcement will be made later by the committee on arrangements. Every veteran is urged to join the V. F. W. should do so at once.

Every veteran owes this obligation to his wife and family. The emphasis on increased membership is stressed as an important preliminary to the proposal to this Congress of the V. F. W. Seven Point legislative program. The largest overseas veterans' organization in the U. S. which has consistently maintained, for the last several years, the position of the "fastest growing veterans' group" in the country, the V. F. W. seeks a still greater membership in order to support its legislative activities.

A bridge and whist party sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary to Post 1775, V. F. W. will take place Friday evening, February 7 at 8 o'clock at V. F. W. Hall, 352 Mass. ave. opposite Wyman St. The public is cordially invited to attend. Many beautiful and useful prizes will be awarded the winners. Sr. Vice President Ethel Peterson is in charge of arrangements. Proceeds to hospital relief of disabled veterans.

Saturday evening, February 22, Ladies Auxiliary to Post 1775, V. F. W. is sponsoring a costume dancing party at the Kelsey Farm, Lexington. Many surprise attractions.

Beano Parties

Regular Saturday night "Beano Parties" starting next Saturday night at 8 o'clock at request of many of our former patrons. Parties will be conducted as in the past by members of the Post only. Many improvements, beautiful prizes or coupons, as well as like it. Parties will start promptly at 8:30. Seating arrangements comfortable. Enjoy a friendly evening of fun. Proceeds for relief fund.

Veterans of Foreign Wars hall is centrally located, 352 Mass. ave. opposite Wyman St.

Equalization of Pensions

One of the major legislative objectives of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, to be demanded of the 1936 Congress, will be a uniform system of pensions for the dependent mothers, widows and orphans of veterans. No federal legislation is more unequal in its provisions than the laws governing compensation to dependent families of veterans.

In the past it has been the custom to enact special pension laws following each war. Thus we find one set of laws governing the compensation of the dependents of Spanish-American War veterans, while an entirely different set have to do with the compensation of widows and orphans of World War veterans.

It is the purpose of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States to have a permanent uniform system of pensions established in behalf of all the dependent mothers, widows, and orphans of all veterans of all wars. We aim to eliminate discrimination and give to the dependents of World War veterans the same benefits that the dependents of veterans of other wars receive.

Junior Program

Plans for an intensive junior activities program to be sponsored by Post 1775, V. F. W. of the U. S. are underway. Com. Geary appointed Comrade John MacLean, chairman of the committee to draw up tentative plans for the program.

The National V. F. W. has a well defined junior activities program, in which Post 1775 is eager to participate.

It is dedicated to a three-fold program of veteran care, child welfare, and Americanism. With regard to the child welfare program, our membership believes that youth guidance, the development of a high type of citizenship and the supervised direction of youth activities during its formative years, is a responsibility that rests directly on the shoulders of the adult citizens of this country.

All Ash Barrels To Be Tagged

Starting Monday morning, every Arlington ash barrel will be tagged, giving the owner a chance to win a free ton of coal. The Glendale Coal Co., distributor of the famous Hi-Heat imported anthracite, is giving away a ton a week to better acquaint the public with "the world's finest anthracite."

The outstanding features of this imported coal, such as its 96 percent purity, low ash residue, no clinkers, high heat content and long lasting qualities are known to hundreds of Arlington families and this means is being taken in the hopes of acquainting other householders with the fuel savings possible through the burning of this sensational fuel.

All tags have return postcards attached, that, when sent in, entitle the owner to partake in the weekly drawings for the ton of coal as long as the offer lasts. This is a bona fide, free offer, with no obligations or charges of any kind and a public drawing will decide all winners.

If your barrel is missed, you may obtain your tag at the Glendale Coal office, 10 Medford St., Arlington Centre.

Junior West PTA Executives Meet

A meeting of the Executive Board and newly-formed membership committee of the Parent-Teacher Association of Junior High West was held January 22nd at the school. The regular meeting of the Executive Board was conducted by Harold M. Estabrook, president, following which plans were discussed to increase membership of the parents in the association.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Arthur A. Dodge, tentative plans have been formed by the committee to hold for all parents of Junior High West pupils, a travel talk and general acquaintance meeting for social purposes some time in March. Further plans for this "get-together" will be announced later.

Action was taken by the Board, electing Arthur Monk, chairman of the Troop Five Boy Scout committee, as a member of the Board, who will report to the P. T. A. at these meetings the progress of Troop Five, which the association sponsors.

Townsendites Are Complimented By Gen. Hugh Johnson

At the conclusion of the debate by Gen. Hugh Johnson and Dr. Clinton Wunder on the Townsend Plan in Boston Gardens, on Wednesday evening, Gen. Johnson asked for an extra two minutes to tell the audience, which he assumed, was largely Townsend Club members, that he wished to compliment them on their refined and orderly conduct, and be believed them sincere in their desire to benefit humanity. Although he was not greeted with hearty applause, there was no heckling.

He said through the press that he would knock the Townsend Plan into a "cocked hat." But we believe the "hat" went flying with the "blue-eagle" when Dr. Wunder presented the truth about the movement. The General had no suggestion for relief from the present suffering, misery and unemployment, only a continuation of the principles of the Democratic party. He agreed with Dr. Wunder that some plan must be adopted to take care of the millions of people left idle by the machine which has taken away his job. Where 20 men and one machine can do the work of 15,000 men in the same length of time some adjustment must be made. Machines have taken the place of man, same as the auto and tractor has taken the place of the horse, but we must not stop replenishing the earth, the way they have stopped raising horses, and we must not shoot the old people as they do old horses. Some other method must be adopted.

Dr. Wunder outlined how and why the Townsend Plan must work. Why must we be taxed to pay pensions to a selected few, such as the policemen, firemen, high salaried government officials up to the President, and many others, and let the people who have really created the wealth of the country, be in poverty? The Townsend people, everyone else, in order to establish assurance of insurance payable to everyone, eligible, not a selected few, when they reach the age of 60 years, as all must sooner or later, and may find themselves with an income of less than $2400 a year.

He also made it very clear, that the plan would cut in two our crime bill, which reaches into the billions each year, wipe out nearly all relief work, and absolutely eliminate all poor houses, thus relieve the tax payers of these burdens. The 17 million children of parents now on the dole could be clothed and educated as they should be. Dr. Wunder explained the 2 percent tax on transactions, and he said: "Get this, the 2 percent tax is not on the National yearly net income, but on the transaction turnover," many seem to be wrong on this point. He warned us, that we must "get out our Paul Revere's for the Brain Truststers are marching on Beacon Hill."

Notices were handed out announcing a mass meeting in Faneuil Hall, Thursday, Jan. 30, at 12 noon, to which all were invited.

The regular meeting of Arlington Townsend Plan Club will be held in Locke School hall, Arlington Heights, on Tuesday evening, February 4, 1936, at 8 o'clock. Dr. Lucius K. Thayer of Salem will be the speaker, he will be glad to answer any and all questions regarding the movement, for he is one of the early and interested workers. A string quartet will furnish the musical program. A list of members of the club engaged in business for themselves, and all merchants in Arlington belonging to the organization, will be read, so that they may be patronized by our members. Refreshments will be served as usual after the meeting.

Don't forget the mass meeting in Woburn Friday evening. Also the broadcasts. Watch papers for notices.

THE SCOUT MASS MEETING

Preparatory to the annual drive for funds for the Boy Scouts which is to begin on February 10th and end on February 17th, there will be a big mass meeting in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, Wednesday, February 5th.

At the Arlington meeting will be scouts from Arlington, Belmont and Lexington, and most of these scouts are expected to be present with their parents and friends.

The speakers from each town are representative men who will give the viewpoint of the average citizen as to the value of scouting in their communities.

The worth of this great movement has been fully demonstrated. The public is invited to this meeting and we confidently expect our people will again welcome this opportunity to do their part in supporting this great character building program for our youth.

A PUBLIC RESPONSIBILITY

The President's Birthday Ball to aid in the fight against infantile paralysis, was held last evening in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall. The large attendance made this a notable occasion.

The support given to this worthy cause by those who purchased tickets and attended the Ball is very much appreciated but the total amount received is entirely inadequate to meet the needs of the situation.

Many organizations and individuals have failed to catch the significance of this worthy cause and in order to further increase this fund, of which 70 per cent remains in Arlington, the public is urged to send in their contributions to Henry E. Keenan, treasurer of the fund.

Arlington must not fail to do its duty and the representative committee sponsoring this drive, requests that contributions be made promptly to bring this fund up to respectable proportions.

HOW ABOUT AN AMBULANCE?

That the only available municipal ambulance in Arlington is nothing but an antiquated patrol wagon has long been known. But when this rundown contraption breaks down and it becomes necessary to call for a fire truck to take an accident victim to the hospital, it's a case of carrying the "joke" too far. This very thing happened early yesterday morning. The police department mechanic who keeps the machine going cannot be blamed. That he keeps it running at all should be classed with the seven wonders of the world.

While the NEWS is in full sympathy with strict economy in town government, we believe ways and means should be found to cut costs other than at the expense of the disabled and injured. The town needs a new ambulance. The time to appropriate money for it is NOW. The finance committee should find a way of recommending such an expenditure at the annual town meeting. That the people of the town may realize the wisdom of this appropriation, the so-called ambulance which is a disgrace to the community might be placed on display in front of the town hall on the night of the next town meeting so that all may inspect it and blush.

With The Woman's Club

James H. Powers will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Woman's Club in Robbins town hall next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

James H. Powers has been Editorial Writer and Special Writer of the Boston Globe for the past sixteen years. During the World War he was with the French and the Italian Ambulance Corps for over two years, and has travelled abroad since the war. He received his A.B. Degree from Boston University in 1915, and is a member of the American Academy of Social and Political Science.

Mr. Powers delivered the first Radio Broadcast on Foreign Affairs that ever went over the air in the United States, broadcasting over WBZ, WNAC and WEEI for five years weekly, ten months out of each year.

This year he has had fifty-four articles in the Globe, reviewing the Political and Social New Deal, from the times of Ancient Greece to the present Roosevelt Administration. About two years ago he wrote a series of articles, sixty in all, reviewing creative figures and forces in history from the times of Homer down to the Twentieth Century.

Music will be provided by Alice Armstrong Kimball, soprano. The International Relations committee in charge of the meeting comprises Mrs. Augustus Doyle, Mrs. Herman Gammons, Mrs. Chester Hinds, Mrs. Clarence E. Johnson, Mrs. Ralph G. Perkins, Mrs. Ralph M. Simonds, Mrs. Charles A. Thomas and Mrs. Joseph J. Travers.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

That a cold shower may turn into cash is proved by a one-act comedy entitled "Cold Water and Cash" which will be presented by the Arlington Junior Woman's Club President's Night, Monday, February 3, at 8:00 in the Robbins Library Hall. The cast, which includes Jean Otley, Nancy Shedd, Irene Allison, Eleanor McCormick, Ruth Lorenz, Myrtle Pierce, Elizabeth Shedd and Virginia Keefe, is coached by Mrs. John Winner and Miss Katharine Hart, both active members of Friends of the Drama. Miss Ruth Olive, Chairman of Music, has obtained Miss Annahed Avakian, a talented young Arlington violinist, for the musical program. Mrs. Robert B. Farmer, President of the Senior Woman's Club; Mrs. Harold B. Wood, and the Presidents of the Junior Clubs of the 7th Massachusetts District, are the guests of the evening.

A mysterious Leapyear Dance is featured on the program of the Valentine Party for the Junior Woman's Club on February 14 at the home of Mrs. A. D. Wood.

Unless the entire people are changed, we'll have something like Europe in America," Benjamin H. Brinton, treasurer of the New York Stock exchange told members of the Oxford Group at Richmond recently.

This group, from which much will be heard in the future, believes the fundamental problem today is elimination of self-seeking and replacement by co-operation within an industry and with one's competitors and customers. Here's a difficult problem for any group to tackle.

The Oxford Group Movement has gained impetus within the past four years. It is termed a Christian revolution, or awakening to conditions right around us, in our own homes, our own communities, to the end that it will bring world peace and contentment. The Movement appears to have many commendable purposes.

Thanks largely to the efforts of the operator of the House By the Side of the Road, popular food shop at Mass ave and Bailey rd a carstop has been established by the Boston Elevated at this point. This stop has long been urged by residents of the district. Commuters are welcome to wait for street-cars at the House By the Side of the Road.

Town meeting members who showed up for the town meeting which had to be called off last Wednesday evening were at least given the opportunity of viewing a most interesting display of wood carvings made by PWA workers. The carvings were on display in the lobby of the town hall and caused much comment.

Many probably noticed also that several chairs in the auditorium had been recaned. This is another WPA project, the work being under way at the town hall with four or five experts doing the job.

Harrison Lakin will speak on the subject, "United States Influence in Foreign Affairs" at the next current events lecture in the senior high school Monday evening, February 2, at 8 o'clock. The lectures are sponsored by the school committee.

Eager To Co-operate With Town Officials,
Association States

Jan. 28, 1936

Mr. Loren W. Marsh, Board of Public Works, Town Hall, Arlington, Massachusetts, My dear sir:—

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Arlington Taxpayers Association, your letter of January 21st, was discussed.

The directors are pleased to learn from you that the final cost of the horses to the town is now at a figure which appears to be reasonable. We certainly desire to cooperate whenever possible, but when the facts are difficult to obtain we may feel obliged to comment, even though rapid changes of conditions may cause some embarrassment.

Our directors feel that any further discussion, either pro or con, on this subject which your department seems to have well in hand, can serve no useful purpose to the town.

Respectfully yours,
Arlington Taxpayers Association, Inc.,
By Russell T. Hamlet,
Executive Secretary.

Candidate Promises
To Attend Meetings

To the Editor of the Arlington News:

I read with interest to-day that not enough Town Meeting Members showed sufficient interest in Town affairs last night and they were obliged to postpone the meeting.

I wish to announce that as a citizen of Arlington and a tax payer for the last three years I would welcome the honor to sit as a Town Meeting member. I honestly state that I could be depended upon to attend the meetings.

TO AID COACH STRICKEN WITH INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Plans are under way for a monster testimonial for the benefit of William "Bill" Lowder, former Arlington High basketball coach, who is making a comeback after being stricken with infantile paralysis. The money raised from the event will be used to defray expenses to send Lowder to Warm Springs, Georgia to regain his health.

The games will be Somerville vs. Chelsea; Medford vs. Cambridge High and Latin; and Arlington Alumni (consisting of M.I.T. championship team) vs. the 1935 team. Each game will consist of one full half. Prominent members of the Eastern Massachusetts Basketball Officials' association including Jimmie Parker, George Clarke, Tom Newell, Eddie Boyle, Johnnie Mitchell will act as referees.

LOCAL MEN URGE ALEWIFE BROOK BE CLEANED OUT

(SPECIAL TO THE NEWS)

STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, Jan. 28.—Loss of revenue on property adjacent to the Alewife Brook was today advanced as sufficient cause for the Metropolitan District Commission to step in and take some action in clearing the alleged unsanitary conditions reported to exist in the brook.

John L. Pichette of Arlington, who with Edward T. Ryan of this town and Senator Charles T. Daly have called upon the Metropolitan District Commission to make investigation of the factors said to be detrimental to health along the brook, told the committee real estate in the immediate vicinity has been greatly impaired by present conditions.

Engineer Arthur D. Weston of the state department of public health branded conditions as "one of the worst in northern metropolitan area."

Pichette told the committee that real estate owners in the neighborhood "have had to lower their rentals on property in the vicinity. There seems to be a scum and some sewage in summer months and it has been called a 'dirty mud hole.' I would like to see if there isn't some way we can get water flowing in the brook to clear out the stagnation."

The brook has been a health menace for the past 25 years, Edward T. Ryan, former member of the Arlington public works board told the committee. "There has been nothing there but stagnant water and a study such as requested here would be a step in the right direction".

The committee took the matter under advisement.

Mrs. Owen Presents Interesting Talk On Topic, "Personality"

An even larger audience than heard her previously listened to Mrs. Margaret Eggleston Owen's second lecture on Monday evening in the Park Avenue Congregational Parish Hall, and testified by their presence in spite of very cold weather, to the enthusiasm with which her first lecture was heard.

Mrs. Owen's subject was "The Development of Personality". Mrs. Owen said in part:—

"People may be divided into 3 classes.

1. The unemotional, stolid, dependable type.

2. The emotional, inflammatory, idealistic type.

3. The controlled emotional, idealistic type.

"The greatest opportunities and achievements come to the latter type. Self control, and the trained will are the great ideals to work for.

"The child must be taught first the desire to master himself. He learns most through imitation of those about him. It is therefore of vital importance that the parents in the home set the first example of self control to the child.

"The aim of every mother should be to help the child to be what he really wants to be, and probably can be; to train his will in such a way that he can exert it steadily and happily to accomplish his real desires. The following rules will help in developing self-control:

1. Have a goal to work for.

2. Give the child some freedom to exercise his will.

3. Say "can" as often as "can't" and praise more than blame.

4. See the act and see the motive behind it. The act may be wrong when the motive is right.

Ralph B. Lancaster, Mrs. Thomas P. Pitre, Mrs. John B. Proudfoot, Mrs. Harold J. Cue, Mrs. J. William Fellows, Mrs. Arthur J. Co-vell and Mrs. George H. MacGill-vray reported a most enjoyable evening.

HERE'S SOME DOG:

The following dog story from the Shebina (Mo.) Democrat is worth passing along."The story is being told of Deputy Sheriff Fred Williams that he does not know his bird dogs, although an ardent hunter. Two years ago, so it is said, he had a female bird dog that he figured would never be any good. Being soft-hearted, he gave a 'friend' fifty cents to kill her. This friend hunted a bit and finally sold her for $2.50. She began showing up well and Sheriff Cecil Taylor paid $10 for her, giving her to his brother, Jake Taylor, in Paris, Mexico this fall, winning first prize and later refusing $150 for her. She has produced him six puppies, two of which have been sold for $50 each."

"Circular advertising by indi-

Shown in Report Of Special Commission(Special To The News)
STATE HOUSE, BOSTON.—
That the Boston Edison Company earned a $9,047,071 profit in 1934 after charges were paid before dividends and interest. The stockholders were met, was disclosed Monday by Prof. John J.
Murray, chairman of the Social Sliding Scale Commission.The local company's percentage of profits are listed as $5.74 on par value and $5.44 for "best property."Vice-chairman Elliot Earl of Melrose, who compiled the percentages of profit in reporting the results of his investigation stated:"It is interesting to note that, from an examination of the records of all the companies engaged in the manufacture and sale of electricity in this Commonwealth, if it were to permit a maximum earning of seven percent per annum on capital stock plus premium as of the year 1934, the earnings of the companies would have been $13,419,457. The actual earnings of these companies in said year of 1934, which were available for dividends after the payment of all interest charges on bonds and notes outstanding, amounted to $17,358,958. Therefore a reduction of almost $4,000,000 would have been realized in the year 1934 if these electric companies were permitted to earn 7 per cent on capital stock plus premium. It is most interesting to note that the total net earnings of these companies before interest payment on bonds and notes in the year 1934 amounted to $21,847,- 358."Urge New Bridge
For Mystic River
At Arlington Line(Special to the News)
STATE HOUSE, BOSTON.—
With the hope of securing fundamental facts upon which to base future action, Senator Charles T. Daly urged this week the legislative committee on Metropolitan Affairs to order a study into possible ways and means of constructing a suitable bridge across the Mystic between Medford and Arlington at River st.
Arlington.Speakers declared the antiquated structure used at present is inadequate to bear the traffic burden.The Senator informed the committee it was believed the approximate cost would be $25,000 but warned that a study should be made before anything is done.
He pointed out that stone abutments standing at the site would be available for use for the new bridge.Branding the existing bridge as "slippery and rickety," John L. Pichette of Arlington urged construction of a new bridge to aid in raising property values in the vicinity."The bridge at present looks more like the rude bridge in Concord, memorialized in verse," Harold Nicholson Medford, city engineer informed the committee.
From Medford, Alderman Walter Lawrence of Ward six also urged a study be made.Emblem Club To Have OPPOSE SUPERVISION OF STOCK ISSUES BY STATE

(Special to the NEWS)

STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, January 30.—State supervision of stock issues by voluntary associations and trusts was voted today by the House of Representatives as charges of a $23,000,000 "steal" were hurled by Rep. Paul J. Mc-Donald of Chelsea, leading advocate of state regulation.On roll call vote of 106 to 94 Representatives Nelson B. Crosby and Hollis M. Gott opposed overturning the adverse report of the committee on judiciary which opposed state regulation.The center of debate occurred between Rep. McDonald and Rep.
Martin Hays of Brighton, member and chairman of the judiciary respectively.Charges that the Massachusetts Utility associate controlled 35 companies and with a total assets of $19,000,000 issued stock valued at $42,000,000."They owned but $19,000,000 under no scrutiny. This revelation would fairly rock the foundation of decency in the Commonwealth," McDonald continued.Removing any doubt as to his belief in the sincerity of Rep. Mc-Donald to secure state regulation, Rep. Martin Hays assailed those political opportunists who would in a political year attack utility companies and appeal to public passion."How easy it is to appeal to public passion. How easy it is to hit at the utility companies. How easy it is to say the interest of the rate payers are at stake," Hays charged. "There is no indoor sport, especially in election year, like corporation baiting.""On this matter we have had lots of figures but no evidence to convince the committee this in-necessary. Had the department of Public Utilities shown interest we probably would have been more willing to accede to the demands of the petitioner.""But I ask, are we going to drive out the state any individual or anyone who can make a reasonable profit on investment?"
Answering a question as to the financial standing of utilities, Rep.
McDonald with Rep. Eugene Giroux of Somerville was one of the two dissenters to the adverse committee report promised that "if the sliding scale commission releases do not show utilities are out of the red, I'll withdraw from this debate.""We are the suckers," he continued pointing out that with the Edison light company, Chelsea, his home city pays "six and one half cents for light and power while in Belmont consumers pay four, and the Edison company sells power to the Belmont plant."Referring to Hays, McDonald asserted "no one can make a better defense out of nothing. He charges to pause before we destroy an octopus in the Commonwealth."During debate, the name of Charles Francis Adams of Quincy, often mentioned as a favorite son for presidential consideration, was named among trustees of the Massachusetts Utility Associates, which was charged with a $23,000,000
"steal."Climaxing the argument before the opponents of state control went down to defeat, Hays challenged the House "If you are afraid of next fall, and want to hoodwink your constituents, if you have no regard for invested capital go ahead and vote for this measure."MORE LIGHT FOR PARKWAY STATE HOUSE, BOSTON.—Installation of 11 highway lamps along the Alewife Brook Parkway at a cost of $4,750 was asked of the legislature this week by Senator Charles T. Daly of Medford, appearing before the committee on Metropolitan Affairs.The lighting system planned by the Senator would extend from Massachusetts ave. and go along the parkway in the cities of Cambridge and Somerville.
The committee took the request under advisement.

"Tournament of Roses" Brought To Fortnightly Club's Meeting

The Art Committee, Mrs. M. E. Curtis, Chairman, could not have chosen a more appropriate evening for this delightful subject. With thoughts of the New Year's "Tournament" fresh in mind, members and their friends who braved the discomfort of a typical New England sleet storm, found the warmth of California's sub-tropical beauty awaiting them.

As one journeys throughout the length and breadth of this great State, the glamour and romance of the old Spanish reign makes itself felt in myriad ways. California is very wisely striving to keep this influence alive. We see it in her architecture, we hear it in the names of places, we watch it in pageant and play, music and art. This "Tournament of Roses" commenced forty-five years ago by a little group of people desirous of showing their joy in the beauty of their land. The pictures shown by Mrs. Elsie Powers Corwin, R.I., were exquisite beyond description. Two thousand or more individuals participate in the actual parade and this recent 1936 Tournament was witnessed by a million and a half spectators.

BOMBING VOLCANOES

The lava flow from Mauna Loa stopped within three miles of the water reservoirs of Hilo, Hawaii. Army planes dropped 20 large bombs in the lava flow in an effort to create an artificial dam to head the lava off from the city water supply.

We have often wondered why bombing experiments have not been tried on some volcano distant from civilization. A bomb is as up when lanced. May it not be possible that volcanoes persist because somewhat confined? Experiments at blowing the top off some island volcano might prove the possibility of draining with canals those which now endanger human life.

Teachers' Oath and Dictators

Those who believe that dictatorship "can't happen here" are merely deluding themselves, declares Prof. E. M. Winslow who, along with Prof. Arthur M. Lane, has resigned his position at Tufts College rather than submit to the Massachusetts Teachers' Oath law. Professor Winslow points out that although its first purpose was to drive out "radicals" from the teaching profession, it is because he and Professor Lane are "hopelessly old-fashioned" that they will not submit to the regimentation.

Professor Winslow amplifies his reasons for resignation as follows: "The implications behind legislation of this sort run much deeper than mere unwarranted interference with the freedom of teaching and with civil liberties in general. Instead of preventing the spread of subversive doctrines, it encourages it. In itself it is typical of the tactics of Fascist and Communist dictatorships, and marks a momentous step toward some form or other of the 'totalitarian state.' As far as I am concerned, there is nothing to choose between these various forms, whether they come as Fascism or Communism. I am as unalterably opposed to one as to the other, because each, in a slightly different way at the outset, spells regimentation of the mind as well as of the individual, and the complete destruction of those intellectual, economic, and personal liberties which have been the pride of our democracy.

Precedents Cited
"For the past 15 years I have studied undemocratic tendencies at work in Russia, Italy and Germany, where the first freedom to disappear in the ruthless march toward the totalitarian state has been the freedom of teaching. And as I read the signs of the times in this and other democratic countries I am convinced that those who feel assured that 'it can't happen here' are merely deluding themselves.

"It is a serious charge to make, that the real pro-Fascist and pro-Communist elements in this country are those very proponents of such legislation as the teachers' oath act, but I am prepared to make and to defend such a charge. I do not say that such is their conscious intention at all. Far from it. I give them credit for having serious intentions, but having serious intentions does not prevent them from being the victims of mistaken economic, political and social views, or from doing other than they intend.

Violates His Aims
"The avowed object of the law was to drive Communists and other subversive 'radicals' from the teaching professions in this State. My colleague, Professor Lane, and I are both hopelessly old-fashioned and Mid-Victorian in our economic views, and abhor Communism and Fascism and 'planned economies' generally. It is because of these views that we refuse to buckle to a law which violates all that we stand for and had hoped that this country might stand for.

"If there are any 'dangerous radicals' teaching in the State the law failed to disclose them. Who is going to be stopped by a mere oath if he seriously intends to 'overthrow the Government'?" The really subversive elements, as I see it, are to be found among the legislators who passed the law, in the sensational journalism which backed it, and in the ranks of the professional 'patrioteers' who sponsored it.

"The teachers' oath act is an unwarranted interference with the freedom of teaching in particular; it portends serious infringement of civil liberties in general; and it discriminates against certain members of the community when such discrimination is uncalled for.

"The requirement of such an oath implies that the subscriber to it is a public official. Personally I should have no objection to taking an oath or affirmation to support the State or Federal Constitutions if I were a public official; but when I am not I object to being treated, in principle, as if I were an official of the State."

(Signed): E. M. Winslow.

EXPECT HOSTILITY TO GOV. CURLEY'S BUDGET

(By NEWS Staff Correspondent)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, Jan. 30—Open hostility to the $69,162,710 fiscal program outlined by Governor James M. Curley in his annual budget message, will be shown as the Ways and Means committee opens hearings on budget recommendations Monday.

Acting on recommendations of the ways and means group the House and Senate will determine whether or not the 70 per cent saving planned by Governor Curley by reduction of the Arlington state tax from $89,300 in 1935 to $26,790 in 1936 will prevail.

Danger of the legislature refusing to adopt the $12,000,000 tax program including transfer of $6,000,000 from the highway fund outlined by the Governor may jump the local assessment for state expenditures to $133,950, an increase of 50 per cent over the previous year.

Should transfer of gas revenue be approved, but new taxes sprung by the legislature a $9,000,000 state tax would impose a local tax of $50,703, 10 per cent lower than the previous year.

A $5,000,000 state tax would be levied, with increase of the highway fund transfer from $6,000,000 to $10,000,000 imposing a state levy of $44,550 on local real estate, representing a 50 per cent slash of the 1935 tax levy.

That critics of the Governor will avail themselves of every opportunity afforded by the ways and means committee hearings to hit hard at the Governor for his vast expenditure program, is unquestioned.

The forthcoming hearings will be marked by the most caustic of verbal assaults on any budget submitted by a chief executive in the memory of the oldest of state house observers.

Republican foes of bonded indebtedness will muster strength as they set forth to stem the tide of authorized bond issues, simultaneously moving to halt the $9,000,000 building program planned by Governor Curley for state institutional needs.

Imposition of added taxes, in the face of statutory levies already on the books of the Commonwealth, will represent one of the major items of debate in coming weeks.

The gasoline tax, earmarked originally for no purpose save highway construction, has been extended year in and year out. The additional one cent levy added to the statutory two cent assessment has been an annual proposition as the legislature has prolonged its life.

The 14-per cent surtax asked by the Governor last year to keep his deficit down to the figure of $10,000,000 is this year included in estimated receipts, as the legislature is asked to adopt in toto a $12,000,000 tax program to provide a $3,000,000 tax.

In the light of past experience in levying new tax assessments on classes of incomes, the temporary levies have often times been construed by successive administrations to afford permanent sources of revenue.

This is expected to be the main argument which will be raised in the coming week against the tax program outlined by the Governor.

The ways and means committee in early stages of the budget discussion will confine their sessions to departmental expenditures.

As hearings progress, the tax element will enter into the hearings as reports and legislative action on new tax proposals are brought into being.

It is at this time, that the anticipated unsuccessful move of pay-as-you-go advocates and limited expenditures champions will be outdone by the vigorous opposition of tax paying groups. Never in the history of legislative hearings called by ways and means committees will such minute scrutiny have been given a budget as is anticipated this year on the Curley budget.

ants Middlesex County Laborers To Get Local Work

(Special to the NEWS)
STATE HOUSE, Boston—Employment of Middlesex county residents in preference to public works projects designed to relieve unemployment, was advocated this week by Rep. Frederick H. Tarr, Jr., of Rockport, supported by legislators from rural areas where jobless men remained idle because workers were imported into rural areas from large cities.

Repercussions of the Chelsea municipal election where 1500 Chelsea men were reportedly transported from that city to Essex county towns for road work, occurred as charges were hurled that the $13,000,000 bond issue was being "in politics up to the hilt."

The proposal for restriction of relief expenditures in the county, under which Arlington was scheduled for work totalling $15,464 may be later amended to insure a definite percentage of work for city laborers, with the remainder divided among local county men.

Spokesman for the state department of public works, Mr. Morrissey told the committee on public service that local help is employed on all sidewalk work.

Battle Looms Over Bond Issue For 1936

(Special to the NEWS)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Jan. 24—With legislators renewing demands that local men be given work under the $15,464 allotment made for Arlington in the 1936 bond issue, Governor James M. Curley is facing a severe test to secure House and Senate support of his proposed 1936 bond issue.

During months past irate representatives and Senators served notice on Governor Curley that local men must be given jobs.

Noticeable in the battle were charges in Essex county and rural areas of Norfolk, Middlesex and eastern Worcester county that Boston and Chelsea men were employed while locally worthy cases remained idle.

The new legislative-executive job battle came to pass as Rep. Albert E. Morris of Everett charged men were assigned to jobs that did not exist.

Governor Curley declared but three such cases were known to him.

While Gov. Curley was swinging his work and wages bond issue program into operation last year, solons continuously assailed him for completely controlling patronage.

After he left for a rest cruise to the near Orient where he met his daughter Mary Curley Donnelly, the same group of irate legislators stormed the employment office created by the Governor.

Their protests apparently failed to register, for now they are back in fighting formation again.

The new contest between the legislators and the Governor may lead to difficulties when the Governor leads to difficulties when the Governor posed bond issue later on.

Gossip has it that until jobs are given out through local representatives, no support will be thrown to the gubernatorial wishes.

The assault of 1936 opened with Rep. Morris of Everett declaring "the work and wages program is not all its cracked up to be," assailing distribution of jobs.

No indication is given that the Governor will change his employment policies but there is assertion from solons that unless they are "counted in" political revolt will follow.

Praising Council Hooley Answers "Average Citizen"

268 Broadway,
Arlington, Mass.
January 17, 1936

Arthur J. Mansfield, Esq.,
Editor, Arlington News,
Arlington, Mass.

My dear Mr. Mansfield:

It is not my desire to attempt constructive criticism of one who might be regarded as possessed with a petulant and recalcitrant disposition utterly devoid of altruistic motives, or to directly apply the philosophy of forensics thereto, rather it is my avowed purpose to help enlighten those among the citizenry of Arlington whose minds may tend to become perverted through perusing the verbiage exemplified within the promulgation which appeared in the Arlington News published January 17, 1936 over the pseudonym "Mr. Average Citizen," said "Ghost Writer." I entertain the thought, is merely misinformed.

I am, in no sense, an affiliate of the Arlington Welfare Council. I am, however, well informed relative to its aims, objects, purpose and maintenance. I assume "Mr. Average Citizen" had direct reference to the Arlington Welfare Council when he mentioned in his treatise "the welfare club."

It appears that the treatise, evidenced by the date thereon together with the phraseology therein was compiled prior to December 24, 1935, the authentic date whereupon the Christmas dinner baskets were distributed to the less fortunate citizens of Arlington who I know from observation awaited the possibility of a Christmas dinner with grave apprehension.

My interest in the functions of the Arlington Welfare Council was created when on October 1, 1935 I was privileged to receive the appointment as Chairman of the Precinct 3 drive committee, which I accordingly promptly accepted, hence my first hand knowledge of the methods whereby the Arlington Welfare Council is financed; that is, entirely by the solicitation of monetary donations from the citizens of Arlington.

Through the medium of my duty as Constable, Deputy Collector of Taxes and Park Commissioner of the Town of Arlington, I have obviously observed and learned of the numerous exigencies existent in Arlington together with the subsequent relief afforded thereto by the Arlington Welfare Council.

Realizing full well the apparent lack of adequate distribution of Christmas dinner baskets, Mr. Charles H. Bowker, a fellow Town Meeting member of mine in Precinct 3, and myself offered our services to Semira E. Perry, (Mrs. Roscoe R. Perry) president of the Arlington Welfare Council, in any manner she should desire in order to expedite the distribution of dinner baskets on Christmas eve, an occasion wherein said dinner baskets would be most welcome by the impoverished of Arlington.

It is indeed regrettable that "Mr. Average Citizen" did not accompany Mr. Bowker and myself through our Town of Arlington from the Alewife Brook to the Arlington-Winchester - Lexington boundary on one side, and through to the Arlington-Belmont-Lexington boundary on the other, when, between the hours of seven of the clock in the evening until midnight, we distributed approximately 20 Christmas baskets to the needy of Arlington, at this juncture I wish to enunciate that the aforementioned distribution took place Christmas eve—December 24, 1935.

I am quite certain that if "Mr. Average Citizen" had accompanied us throughout that evening he would genuinely appreciate the fallacy of the assertions as set forth in his treatise, and further, if he should desire information relative to the actual economic condition of those whom we had the distinct pleasure to serve that Christmas eve, I hereby extend to him a most cordial invitation to consult me, at his convenience, with reference thereto.

The informed citizens of Arlington look with approbation upon the Arlington Welfare Council and its president Mrs. Perry, who with her staff of assistants have largely alleviated the deplorable condition commensurate with the current economic depression, the ravages of which reflected upon many citizens of Arlington, who became victims thereof, through no fault of their own.

I, as one of the aforementioned informed citizens of Arlington, will always, without hesitation, support, and defend the benevolent principles for which it stands.

You have my permission, Mr. Mansfield, to publish this correspondence, should you deem it expedient.

Very truly yours,
Daniel M. Hooley.

NO OPPOSITION TO PAY RAISE

(Special to the NEWS)
STATE HOUSE, Boston — No opposition was registered Wednesday to the request of Clerk of Courts Senator Charles T. Garvanagh of Cambridge, who seeks a $600 yearly increase for his second assistant district court.

No protest was raised to the request as the committee on public service today heard the Clerk tell of the work done by the assistant for which a salary jump from $2700 to $3300 yearly is asked.

Reports still persist that Henry Keenan, well-known real estate man will be a candidate for assessor in the March election.

Evening Class
Registrations
Now Over 500

In spite of the transportation difficulties resulting from Sunday's severe storm, nineteen new registrations were taken Monday evening at the Community Evening Classes in Adult Education at the Senior High School. The total number of registrations was then 495, and there is little doubt that enough registered last evening to go over 500.

Every instructor in the classes is well trained in his subject, and is giving his services to the community so that all may avail themselves of the opportunity of broadening their education and having a greater appreciation of life. One lady was overheard saying classes were so good she wished she were the Dionne quintuplets so that she might attend several classes at once.

Atty. Albert W. Wunderly's class in Town Government was especially interesting Monday evening. Next week, Selectman Ernest W. Davis will be guest and will address the class during part of the period. Town Government meets in Room 13 from 8:30-9:30 on Monday evenings.

Last evening, the lecture in the health course was a talk on cancer by Dr. E. M. Daland. Next Thursday, Director Rfordan of the State Department of Animal Diseases will lecture on Rabies, 8:30-9:30, Room 22.

Mrs. Almes' class in Nutrition and Marketing, held Thursday evenings in Room 25a, 7:30-8:30, although not largely attended, has proved very profitable to those interested in the subject.

Classes in Block Printing begin Monday, January 27 at 7:30. Teacher Mr. McDonald Plummer, Room 29.

The lecture on "The Duties of a Loan Officer in a Commercial Bank" by Ira M. Jones, assistant treasurer of Menotomy Trust Company, was postponed from this week Monday to next Monday, 7:30-8:30, Room 32.

The Child Training course lecture was held this week on Monday evening instead of the usual Thursday evening. Dr. Helen I. Doherty McGillicuddy delivered a very interesting talk on "The Problems of Adolescence." Next Thursday Miss Abigail Elliot will speak on the subject "Current Education." This course meets in Room 21 from 8:30 to 9:30.

Lectures On Law

"Torts—The Duty We Owe Our Neighbor" was the topic upon which Atty. Philip Hendrick spoke last evening in the Law course, which is proving a most popular one. Next Thursday the subject is "Property—Our Rights and Duties in Relation to Real Estate and Personal Property." This class now meets in Room 17 (changed from Room 10), 7:30-8:30.

The Art Appreciation lecture Monday evening will be a discussion of "Art Masterpieces" by Dr. Grady D. Feagan, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Arlington. Thursday, Mrs. Walter Vaughan of 164 Park ave will speak on "Art in the Canadian Rockies." This course meets from 7:30-8:30 in Room 34, and is followed by the Interior Decoration lectures in the same room.

In the Interior Decoration course, Louis F. Brown of Irving and Casson Company will deliver Monday evening, the final lecture in a series of three on "Period Furniture." Thursday evening, the subject will be "Oriental Rugs" by Aram Hallajian, Room 34, 8:30-9:30.

Information Bureau

Any further information desired about the classes may be obtained from Mrs. George I. Savage, chairman, 68 Westmoreland ave, Arlington 1414-R, or from members of the committee: Mrs. John N. Loud, 28 Draper ave; Mrs. Frederick J. Harling, 53 Westmoreland ave; Miss Alice G. Kendall, 35 Claremont ave; Mrs. Frederick W. Hill, 15 Oxford st; Mrs. Mortimer H. Wells, 4 Brantwood rd; Mrs. Warren A. Seavey, 187 Pleasant st; Mrs. David A. Wilcox, 16 Maple st; Miss Margaret Damon, 7 Pelham ter; and Mrs. Harold A. Conant, 47 Lincoln st. Lexington. Bowker Would Turn Power of Appointment To County Commissioner

(Special to the NEWS)
STATE HOUSE, BOSTON—Asserting his proposal is a "vital question of home rule," Rep. Philip G. Bowker of Brookline has urged transfer of appointive powers over four Middlesex county officials from the hands of the Governor to the county commissioners.

In the event that County Treasurer Charles E. Hatfield, Registrar of Probate Loring P. Jordan, Sheriff Joseph M. McElroy, or Registrar of deeds Thomas Lelshon should resign their posts or die in office, Bowker would provide for appointment of a successor by the local board of county commissioners.

"This is a vital question of home rule," he told the committee on counties. There is as much reason for the county commissioners to fill vacancies as for selectmen to fill vacancies in town offices. County government is a separate function from that of the Governor and Council," Bowker said.

TAXPAYERS' ASSOCIATION URGES ALL TO REGISTER

Certain figures obtained from the town records, registry of deeds and other sources, reveal a startling lack of interest in town affairs by many of the local property owners.

As of February 1935, there were a total of 18,860 names on the voting lists in Arlington. Of this number it is estimated that approximately 600 have moved or for various reasons are now unable to vote. Owners of property and their families who reside in town and are registered total approximately 8800. Unregistered property owners and families total approximately 4200, many of whom are ineligible to vote. However a fair estimate seems to be about 2700 are eligible. The situation seems to arise in most cases where the husband or wife own the property and the other has not registered. Others where both husband and wife are not registered at all, and in a great many instances where children of age in the family have not registered. There are quite a few cases where people who have permanent residence with property owners have not registered.

The Board of Registrars have this year liberally placed their time at the disposal of those who care to register, and the Taxpayers Association ardently recommends that every eligible voter in town see that his or her name goes on the list. The Town Hall is to be open for that purpose from February 10th to February 19th inclusive, and various schools at specified dates in the evening.

The Taxpayers Association feels that the time is fast approaching when every vote is going to be needed to stem the tide of spending. The taxpayer is carrying the greatest part of the burden, and therefore they should see to it that every possible vote is recorded. The many members of this Association are urged to personally see that their friends and neighbors are registered.
